DETAILED ACTION

1. Receipt of the Amendment filed February 03, 2006 is acknowledged. Claims 1-11 are pending in the application and are presented to be examined upon their merits.

Response to Arguments

2. With regard to applicants' assertion that the Examiner has suggested that the Friedland et al does not have the distributed processing system and the does have the distributed processing system, the Examiner presented the secondary reference, Hultgren, for the purposes of providing analogous art to the teachings of Friedland. It was suggested in Friedland that a distributed processing system was used (via the Internet), but did not show, per se, a distributed processing network as a number of inter-linked servers. It was also, suggested that the identification of loser bids by Friedland would be obvious because an artisan at the time of the invention would recognize the fact that the determination of winning bids would also (automatically) include which bids are losers by being filtered out. Thus rejections of claims 1-8 are maintained.\

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 3-5 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The word "it" is not distinctive because one of ordinary skill in the art may not ascertain exactly what limitation "it" is referring to.

Art Unit: 3624

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 9-11 are allowed.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Prior art fails to disclose 9(b). As allowable subject matter has been indicated, applicant's reply must either comply with all formal requirements or specifically traverse each requirement not complied with. See 37 CFR 1.111(b) and MPEP § 707.07(a).
